Dear Patrice,

Our world has been turned upside down due to the Coronavirus. With your recent gift we are making a difference in the lives of our neighbors.

Because of you, the families in the sea of cars that wait in long lines drove home with trunks full of fresh produce and shelf-stable food kits. Your support ensures that every family in the sea of cars, many waiting for the first time, are being fed.

Because of you, Harry Chapin Food Bank never once wavered in its mission to lead our community in the fight to end hunger. To simply say thank you seems inadequate. Thank you for being our helper. Thank you for being our partner as we persevere through these uncharted waters. Together, we can lead our community in the fight to end hunger.

With deep gratitude,

Barbara E. Evans, CFRE
Chief Development Officer
